

1 the government shall be immunized.

2 If they believe that they should never advance
3 the proposition set forth in Section 7. Secondly, I beg
4 of the assembly to remember that we are sitting as a Consti-
5 tutional Convention, not a state legislature. Yesterday
6 we tried to write a little Wagner Act on this floor. Now
7 they want us to write a little tort claims act and in a
8 few minutes you will be asked to write a full employment 9 act.

10 We are a Constitutional Convention, not a legis-
11 lature. We have a legislature. I beg you to start acting
12 like a Convention and stop acting like a legislature.

13 We will not only have a better Constitution,
14 you might get out of here by New Years.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate White.

16 DELEGATE WHITE: Mr. Chairman and members of 17 the Convention, it is with some reluctance that I rise to 18 pose this amendment, but I feel that I have a duty to 19 perform.

20 I am puzzled by one question and that is; how 21 shall we reconcile brevity with the idea of meeting the
